SPAIN MEETS WITH REVERSES AND HER TROOPS MUTINY

Several Battalions Have Quit
Gen. Marina's Forces Joining Moors or Fleeing.

Pittsburg Strikers Continue
to Give Much Trouble.

VERY MANY PEOPLE ARE HURT

Lisbon, Aug. 20.—Several battalions of General Marina's army have mutinied, according to a message from Melillas this morning, and have either joined the Moors or fled toward the French possessions in Morocco. It says also that the Spanish met severe losses in an aggressive campaign begun by Marina Wednesday, and is being forced to retire within the city to wait reinforcements.

Strikers Continue Riots at Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Aug. 20.—With the possibility of the court decision on a petition for arbitration being filed by the strikers of the Pressed Steel Car company, they poured out upon streets of Schoonville early this morning and gathered on the corners, discussing the chances bringing the long strike to an end. The riot last night was a repetition of Wednesday's. Street cars were held up and men beaten and clubbed, and one was probably fatally injured. Volleys were fired at the steamer P. M. Pfeil, which was supposed to carry strikebreakers. Many shots struck the steamer, but no one was hurt. Late in the evening the strikers found a man in their midst whom they alleged was agent of the company, a score attacked him, stabbing him in the neck with a dirk, while others beat him over the head with half bricks; a squad of constabulary came to his rescue and hurried with him to the company's stockade. As most of the trouble is at night a giant searchlight has been placed on top of the company's buildings, while barrels of water were placed at different points, fearing an attempt would be made to fire the shops.

AUTONOMY FOR COLONIES.

Must, However, Subscribe to Defense of Empire.

London, Aug. 20.—The delegates to the conference on the naval and military defense of the empire concluded their labors at a plenary session held at the foreign office today and the result of the conference must now be submitted for ratification to the various colonial governments.

The broad principle agreed upon is that all forces of the empire, both naval and military, shall be so organized as to be in a position to render efficient service in an emergency in any part of the empire, fully conserving at the same time the local autonomy of the over-sea dominions.

BURGLAR TRAP FATAL.

Negro Dead Beside Cash Register He Opened.

Cincinnati, O., Aug. 20.—A. T. Morris, a storekeeper at Inverness, near Port Thomas, Ky., stumbled across the dead body of a negro when he went behind his counter early this morning. Part of the man's chest had been torn away by a load of shot that had come from a cunning device that Morris had set next his cash register to kill or wound burglars. A coroner's jury justified Morris, and Morris declared today that the deadly burglar trap would be in its place again tonight. The burglar rang up the finish of his life with the figure "55." He pressed his finger down on the "5" key of the cash register. The bell rang. The money drawer shot out. It pulled fast a string attached to it, that ran back to the trigger of a shotgun lying beside the cash register.

The tragedy that occurred took place quicker than it takes to tell it. The burglar was probably dead before the sound of the register bell had died out. He fell between the counter and shelf on which the cash register stands. Nobody knows who he was.

Brutal Negro Attacks Mere Lad at Early Hour Today in John Niehaus' Drug Store, South Eighth Street

Finding the Boy Alone in the Store, He Starts to Rob
Place and Uses Razor When Boy Objects.

While alone in Niehaus' drug store early this morning, Herbert Blackburn, 16 years old, a clerk, was attacked by a negro man, who was armed with a razor, and slashed across the chest, right shoulder and left arm. Fortunately the cuts were not deep. After the strange attack the negro departed, and when assistance arrived the ruffian had disappeared. Police are searching for the negro, and have a good description, and hope to capture him.

Blackburn resides at 906 South Eleventh street, and is a clerk in the drug store of John Niehaus, Eighth and Husband streets. The drug store was opened this morning about 6 o'clock, and Blackburn was sweeping when a negro man entered the store. He went to wait on him, when he became insolent, and called for Mr. Niehaus, who resides over his drug store. Blackburn informed the negro that Mr. Niehaus had not come down stairs, but that he could wait on him.

Taking the cue that no one was around the negro walked behind the counter, and said he could get anything he wanted. He walked behind the prescription case and Blackburn followed, ordering him to get out of the store. When behind the prescription counter and screened from the front of the store, the negro made a lunge and grabbed the clerk. In his left hand he had concealed a razor, and he began slashing at the boy, who screamed and managed to twist loose. Gaining his freedom the boy ran upstairs and summoned Dr. Niehaus.

When Mr. Niehaus returned with him the negro had departed, but nothing was missed from the store, and it is presumed that he was frightened before he had an opportunity to rob the cash register. Owing to the early hour few people were on the streets, and the negro was not seen to leave the drug store. The alarm was given quickly, and the police are hopeful of catching the negro as Blackburn, although frightened, was able to give an accurate description.

Woman Captured by Searching Party in Tennessee.

Halliday, Tenn., Aug. 20. (Special)—After roaming about the country in a demented state of mind, brought on by a long sickness, Mrs. N. A. Gash, a young woman 24 years old has been captured by a searching party at Durden, Tenn., many miles distant from here.

The woman, suddenly losing her mind, crept from her window on the night of Tuesday, August 10, and disappeared. The discovery was made the following morning and the alarm spread. Relatives took up the search which proved useless although Mrs. Gash had been seen several times in the vicinity. She was scantily clad wearing only a waist and skirt and was bare footed and wore no hat. Wandering south she was seen by parties at Wilderville, Tenn., last Friday night, 12 miles from her home. She entered an open railroad box car which was taken to Yuma, Tenn., by a freight train and there dumped out. She was again seen Sunday at Wilderville and Tuesday a searching party numbering 30 people was formed in an effort to intercept her.

The surrounding country was informed by telephone and telegraph and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon a message was received at Lexington, Tenn., of her capture and she was restored to her home. Her mind is blank and she knows nothing of her wanderings. All precautions are being taken to prevent any attempt of her to get away.

WILL NOT RE-ARREST ELLIS.
Prosecuting Attorney Campbell Says Grand Jury Must Act.

Little Rock, Ark., Aug. 20.—Prosecuting Attorney Roy Campbell today announced that he will make no effort to secure the arrest of W. Y. Ellis until the grand jury meets next month.

Ellis was recently admitted to $10,000 bail by Chancellor Elliott at Pine Bluff. He killed N. P. Willis in a courtroom here last month.

ROSS T. KIMBROUGH, DIED

YESTERDAY AT NASHVILLE
After an illness with appendicitis followed by typhoid fever, Ross T. Kimbrough, 23 years old, died yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock in St. Thomas' hospital in Nashville. While his illness has been critical for several days there were hopes for his recovery until yesterday when he began to sink rapidly. He was born in Paducah as he spent one year with his brother, Dr. F. V. Kimbrough, of Maxon Mills, who was at his bedside. The funeral and burial will be held tomorrow in Allen, Ky.

Mr. Kimbrough was a popular young man, and was an employee in the office of the Tennessee Central railroad. He is survived by a young wife and three brothers: Dr. F. V. Kimbrough, of Maxon's Mill, and Harry and Claud Kimbrough, of Guthrie. He was the youngest son of J. U. Kimbrough, of Sadlersville, Tenn. He was a nephew of Miss Zula Kimbrough, of LaCenter, and of the late MacD. Ferguson.

PROFESSOR SMITH FOR COUNTY CLERK

IS BEING SOLICITED TO STAND
AS INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE.

His Friends Say Many Members of Both Parties Are Urging His Candidacy.

The friends of Professor John D. Smith are urging him to make the race as an independent for county clerk. There have been calls for him through one of the local papers for the past two days, and friends of the professor, when seen today by a Sun reporter said that while he had not contemplated such a thing before, since the report of the conditions in the county clerk's office he made to the fiscal court was given out, he has been solicited by members of both political parties to stand for the office.

"These requests," said one of his friends today, "have been coming to Professor Smith every day from some of his friends, and many more acquaintances, who are members of the Democratic and Republican parties. They say that the county should have a business administration of such an office of importance as county clerk, and knowing the professor's ability, they think he is the man for the place."

Professor Smith is one of the best known men in Paducah. For years he conducted a business college, with marked success, and retired only a few years ago to devote all of his time to the duties of an expert accountant. He is registered as an independent and has never taken any active interest in politics, but should he conclude to make this race he would prove a factor.

SIXTY MILES

AN HOUR MADE BY WILLARD
TODAY IN AIRSHIP.

New York, Aug. 20.—Although himself a little dubious of the report, timekeepers say C. F. Willard made 60 miles an hour in three flights here early this morning. More than two thousand rose before daylight to see the flights in a machine, which Wrights are suing for because they say it infringed on their patent rights. The tearing of a rudder in the wind was the only cause of his ceasing for today. He will fly again tomorrow.

GENERAL JOHN K. HENDRICK
INVITED TO SPEAK AT RALLY

Gen. John K. Hendrick has received an invitation from Congressman Ollie James, chairman of the Jefferson County Barbecue committee, to deliver a speech at the opening of the Democratic campaign in that county August 31 and September 1. Judge Hendrick said this morning that he would attend.

It will be the opening of the Democratic campaign in Jefferson county at which time the party will make an effort to rally the Democracy in Louisville. On the two days set for the campaign speeches will be made by prominent party leaders and a big barbecue will be enjoyed. Although he will be glad to speak before the assembly, Judge Hendrick's mouth has begun to water for the proposed barbecue.

EIGHTY MILES AN HOUR IN AIRSHIP TODAY

Bleriot Literally Burns the Wind With a New Model of His Airship.

First Result of Sutton Inquiry
is a Dismissal.

MARINE COMMANDANT VICTIM

Rheims, Aug. 20.—Practically all of the aeroplanists in the world except the Wright brothers are here preparing for next week's flights. Glenn Curtiss, the American, is the center of attraction because of a thrilling incident when he avoided a midair collision yesterday by flying over the aeroplane of M. Dumonest when about hit at right angles. Roger Sommer is the record holder for time and length of flight. Louis Bleriot the English channel conqueror, is also among the idols. Bleriot in a new monoplane made terrific speed and it is believed to have been 80 miles an hour.

Rheims, Aug. 20.—The American aviator Glenn H. Curtiss, at sundown yesterday added a dramatic feature to the trial flights of the aeroplanes entered for the contests of aviation week by skillfully guiding his machine above another aeroplane and averting a collision.

The feat was accomplished when for the first time in history, three heavier-than-air crafts were maneuvering at the same time. All were flying rapidly when suddenly Curtiss saw M. Dumonest in an Antennette monoplane approaching at right angles and on the same level with him. As quick as a flash Curtiss realized the danger and elevating his planes his machine instantly shot upward and soared safe over the Frenchman. Ten thousands of spectators who lined the aerodrome watched the maneuver with bated breath, but when they saw it successfully and brilliantly carried out they applauded the American wildly. The third machine in the air at this time was that of M. Tissandier.

Experts were agreed that Mr. Curtiss had made a fine demonstration of his skill and ability to control his machine during the evolution. They declared that his bi-plane was a real racer.

The wind, which had been master of the aeroplanes for two days, died down at sundown and the aviators rushed to the sheds and dragged out their machines. Thousands of eager spectators crowded about them, but mounted gendarmes and dragoons soon cleared the aerodrome so that the trials could proceed. Count De Lambert, with a Wright model, was the first of the aviators to start and made a complete circuit of the aerodrome. M. Tissandier, also on a Wright bi-plane, followed him.

Then the Curtiss machine, looking smaller and more compact than the others, was placed in position for a flight. After a short run over the ground the aeroplane ascended and made a wide turn and then described evolutions back and forth over the aerodrome.

Meantime M. Dumonest had started across the field in one of the Antennette machines. Suddenly it seemed to the crowd below that a collision between him and Curtiss was inevitable, but the American proved a quick thinker and gracefully swerved his machine upward and safely steered it over that of Dumonest.

Curtiss landed without accident at his place of starting after having been in the air four minutes. The altitude reached by him was 150 feet fifty feet higher than any of the others. Count De Lambert and M. Tissandier each made flights of twelve minutes during the evening and Hubert Latham took a few short spins about the course and was given an ovation by the spectators. M. Bleriot came out on the field with his monoplane, but darkness prevented his making a flight.

FIRST FRUITS OF THE
SUTTON INQUIRY

Washington, D. C., Aug. 20.—Col. Charles E. Doyen, commandant of the marine barracks at Annapolis, is to be relieved of duty at that point, as the first step in a house cleaning which it is said is to be carried on in the marine corps as a result of the harsh criticism of that body by the assistant secretary of the navy and the Sutton court inquiry. Neither the navy nor the marine corps can find fault officially with Doyen, who is regarded as a capable and efficient officer. No reason was given for the dismissal, but the fact that he was commandant during the Sutton fight is believed to be the reason.

Terrible Disasters at Indianapolis Auto Race Yesterday in Which Two Men Lose Lives. Bourque a Victim

Wonderful Speed is Shown
By All the Cars But Every Race Was Tinged With Excitement and Danger.

Indianapolis, Aug. 20.—Two lives were lost and two records broken during the inauguration of the Indianapolis motor speedway yesterday. William A. Bourque, driver of the Knox car in the 250-mile race, and Harry Holcomb, his mechanic, were killed in the frenzied carnival of speed.

The Knox car was in second place, with Burman in his Buick leading, and had covered nearly 150 miles when the crash came. While coming down the home stretch the car suddenly swerved and tore into the fence at the left of the track, turning completely over and pinning its two occupants beneath it. Both men were alive when taken from under the ill-fated machine, but Bourque died in the ambulance on the way to the Mercy hospital. Holcomb lived a few minutes longer, but was dead soon after he arrived at the hospital.

Stories as to the cause of the accident vary, and no one will ever know what really caused the car of death to swerve from the track. According to the story told by Private Frank Brander, company H, Second Regiment, Indiana National Guard, who was nearest to the scene of the accident and had a narrow escape from injury, something caused both men to suddenly turn and look behind. As they did the steering wheel slipped from Bourque's hands and he threw his arms hopelessly in the air. Then came the crash.

One of the rear wheel was found a few hundred feet from the scene of the accident, and this has led to the advancement of the theory that the axle nuts on it had not been properly tightened when the machine had taken on a new tire, shortly before.

The men probably felt that wheel slipping off, and after they looked behind they realized their helplessness to prevent an accident.

Bourque was 26 years old and lived at Springfield, Mass. He had been in the employ of the Knox company for seven years and had been a racing driver since 1907. He raced second in the recent Cobe Trophy race at Crown Point, Ind., and shortly before he had been seriously injured when his car overturned in a hill climbing contest near Worcester, Mass., in May.

Holcomb was 22 years old and lived at Grandville, Mass. He had been with the Knox company for two years and was considered one of the best mechanics in the racing business. Both were unmarried. Albert Denison, the racing partner of Bourque, collapsed after the accident and the services of a physician were required. The sight of the two men lying dead was too much for the friends of both, who had been called upon so often to face death in the same manner.

Louis Chevrolet, the French driver of the Buick team, was led into the hospital—almost blinded with the tar and dust from the track—shortly after the two men had died. The Frenchman, who had been leading during the early part of the long race, was forced to give up. As he gazed upon the bodies of his two former rivals of the track, he muttered "Too bad! Too bad!" and then staggered to a chair, too weak to stand both the physical and emotional strain of the moment. As the result of the two deaths, the Knox company has withdrawn all its entries for the next two days, and it is said it will probably never again enter its car in a race.

DOG ANNOUNCED DEATH

Led Neighbor By Skirt to Dead Body.

Hot Springs, Ark., Aug. 20.—In the testimony before a coroner's jury it developed today that the faithful dog of Fred Miller, whose dead body was found in his home last night, had grabbed at a neighbor's skirt and towed her to a window entrance that the dead body might be found. Later, when officers tried to enter the premises, the dog attempted to fight them off and was shot at several times before he would desist his combat.

The jury agreed that Miller killed himself, probably being despondent over a coolness that had arisen between himself and his only son; Miller left property and life insurance to the probable value of $10,000.

DENIES RECONCILIATION.

Mary Manning Still After Divorce From Hackett.

London, Aug. 20.—Mary Manning, the wife of James K. Hackett who has just returned from the continent, stated:

"The report that my divorce proceedings have been withdrawn surprises me. They certainly have not been withdrawn by my instructions. I placed the entire matter in the hands of my lawyer, and if he has taken such action, I should think he would have cabled me to that effect. Any talk about a reconciliation between myself and Mr. Hackett is futile."

GOOD WORK OF MRS. PURCELL

ORGANIZED SCHOOL LEAGUES
IN 11 OF 13 COUNTIES.

Has Calls to Go to Other Counties
to Aid Others Next Week.

The organization of another county school improvement league was perfected yesterday when Mrs. C. E. Purcell, of Paducah, organizer for the 13 counties of the First congressional district under the direction of the State Federation of the Woman's Club, succeeded in launching the Lyon County School Improvement league at Eddyville with a large and enthusiastic membership. Hon. John L. Smith, editor of the "Tale of Two Cities" of that county, was elected president, and Miss Carrie Lynn, secretary. Several vice-presidents were also elected.

With the organization of Lyon county this leaves but two counties in the district which are unorganized, they being Livingston and Calloway counties. Mrs. Purcell has set dates for the organization of these and will take steps at once to organize in the early fall. Prof. U. S. King, superintendent of the Lyon county schools, has pledged his influence and support to make the organization a success and carry out the excellent work.

Mrs. Purcell has received an invitation to attend the educational rally at Marion, Ky., next Thursday during the meeting of the county school institute there and will attend, that day being the patrons and trustees day. She will attend and also will go to Princeton the following Thursday.

She expects the support of Superintendent Ferguson, of Livingston county, and Superintendent Langston, of Calloway county, when she goes to organize those remaining counties. So far eleven counties are organized and have accomplished much in the work. Mrs. Purcell has been kept extremely busy and has done very creditable work. The Lyon county organization will arrange to have an educational children's day rally this fall. The first congressional district is co-extensive in the county school organizations and the entire district will be organized by the first of the year if the plans materialize.

Mrs. Purcell returned home last night. She was accompanied to Eddyville by her daughter, LaVerne Purcell.

WICHITA AGAIN WIDE OPEN.

Only Restriction on Saloons That They Must Be Uprstairs.

Wichita, Kan., Aug. 20.—After four months of enforced idleness, the saloons of Wichita are again running on the wide open plan. Beer can be obtained at a large number of resorts and whisky is also served. The "wets" are happy and predict that good times have returned to stay. But one restriction is placed on the dealers, and that is they must operate on the second floors of buildings. The chief of police says he can not stop the resorts because the law allows them to sell near-beer—that is, beer containing less than two percent of alcohol—and that it is impossible to tell the near-beer from the real article when the label is removed.

It is declared that if real beer was found it would require a chemical analysis to prove it. This they consider too much trouble.

HARRIMAN IS HALF STARVED SAYS SPECIALIST

Prof. Struempel, Viennese Specialist, Diagnoses Famous Financier's Illness.

Tells Him to Go Naked and Take Champagne Baths.

AND THE REST CURE

Vienna, Aug. 20.—(Copyright, 1909, by United Press)—That Edward H. Harriman, master mind in the railway world, must either cease active participation in business or suffer a complete physical relapse, is the opinion of Professor Struempel, the famous Viennese specialist, who diagnosed his ailments and for whose advice the magnate made a special trip to Vienna. He says he is restored to "comparative health," which will remain satisfactory, "if he lives a most moderate life henceforth. The resumption of the strenuous activity of past will surely bring relapse." He spent hours with Harriman, diagnosing the case as thoroughly as if he was a member of a royal family, whose physician Struempel is. He says he is suffering of lack of proper nourishment, which has caused a general physical weakness, and overwork has caused a general nervous debility and exhaustion. He must take the rest cure, lie quietly in bed many hours a day, eat only nourishing food, and plenty of it, every two hours, must also take sunbaths, going naked in the sunshine, to strengthen his nerves. When there is no sunshine a "champagne bath" with charged with carbonic acid gas will do. He is not suffering from an organic trouble, and he predicts a long life if he follows his instructions. Harriman's half starved condition greatly surprised Prof. Struempel.

SEVEN DISMISSED

CHARGED WITH HAZING CADET
SUTTON, BROTHER OF LIEUT.
TENANT WHO MET DEATH
AT ANNAPOLIS.

West Point, N. Y., Aug. 20.—By direction of President Taft seven cadets were dismissed from the United States Military academy today for being involved in the hazing of Roland Sutton. Cadet Sutton is a brother of Lieut. James N. Sutton, of the naval academy, whose death was investigated at Annapolis recently.

The dismissals were announced when the cadets were paraded at noon today.

Charges were made several weeks ago that Sutton was assaulted while on guard duty, walking a lonely post, and beaten down by men wrapped in sheets and masked in pillow cases. He was almost dazed and sent to the hospital suffering from severe injuries. On account of the law passed by congress to stop hazing at the military academy, a rigid investigation was made. The board which conducted the inquiry was composed of Lieut. Col. Sibley, Capt. Oscar J. Charles, of the Seventeenth Infantry, and Capt. M. F. Smith, of the Twelfth Infantry.

More than 135 witnesses were examined.

The cadets ordered to be dismissed are: John H. Booker, Jr., of West Point, Ga., first class; Richard W. Hocker, Kansas City, Mo., third class; Sarle W. Dunmore, Utica, N. Y., third class; Chauncey C. Devore, Wheeling, W. Va., third class; Gordon Defebvre, Richmond, Va., third class; Albert E. Crane, Hawarden, Ia., third class; Jacob S. Fortner, Dothan, Ala., third class.

POPE'S VIEWS ON DR.

ELIOT'S NEW RELIGION.

Says It Is Easy to Refute His Arguments, and Praises Ecclesiastics.

Chicago, Aug. 20.—A special cable from Rome to the Tribune says: The address delivered by Prof. Charles W. Eliot before the Harvard Summer School of Theology on the religion of the future has been translated by the Pope's order into Italian, that he might more thoroughly comprehend it.

The translation, which was most accurately done, was read with great care by His Holiness, who expresses profound regret that a man of such authority and culture as Dr. Eliot should spread theories that, he said, are not in fact the basis of a new religion of the future, but a negation of the faith and principles which are the foundation of Christianity and modern civilization.

The Pope is reported to have said it would be easy to refute and destroy Dr. Eliot's argument, and highly praised Archbishop Ryan, of Philadelphia; Bishop McFaul, of Trenton, and the other American ecclesiastics who hastened to the defense of their church and faith.

It is believed that a semi-official reply to Dr. Eliot's address, on the lines suggested by the Pope himself, will appear in the Civiltà Cattolica, the most representative Catholic magazine. This is managed by the Jesuits, of which Father Salvatore Bradi, an American citizen, is editor.

How Gov. Hughes Discovered the Majesty of a Baseball Hero.

Governor Hughes, of New York state, takes his hat off to the baseball heroes of today, as witness the following incident: Just after the Cubs defeated Detroit for the world's title some two years ago, and when the fame of the individual players resounded from one end of the nation to the other, Johnny Evers resided in Troy, N. Y., and owned a shoe store there. Johnny was always popular, and especially so in his own town. The Trojan inhabitants, when they learned of his homecoming planned a monster reception for him. It happened that Gov. Hughes was riding in the same train with Evers, and was scheduled to make a speech at Troy the day that the second baseman was to be received.

When the train pulled up at the station a big brass band played, "Lo the Conquering Hero Comes," and a crowd of men and boys cheered lustily. His excellency the governor naturally thought the reception was in his honor, and he beamed as he alighted from the train. Turning to a member of the party, he exclaimed, "This is indeed an honor!" Imagine his surprise when he saw the crowd catch up a slight youth—Johnny Evers—and bear him away

THIN FOLKS MADE FAT.

Good, healthy flesh can only be gained by the use of the proper food, together with natural action of the organs of assimilation. Nine people out of ten in order to weigh as much as they ought and be perfectly healthy, should use Samose, the great flesh-forming food and health restorer. Weigh yourself before commencing to use these little tablets, and see how your weight increases from week to week.

Samose does not contain a particle of starch or pepsin, nor is it any nauseating preparation, such as is usually recommended to make people fat, and which does not build up good healthy tissues. Samose has valuable flesh-forming properties, tones up and strengthens the whole system, helps the food that is eaten to be assimilated in a natural manner, and absolutely restores health to all the organs.

If you are not perfectly satisfied with the results from Samose, R. W. Walker & Co., will return your money without any quibbling. Sent postpaid on receipt of price, 50c.

"Hell-for-Sartin."

For those who did not attend yesterday's game and consequently do not know how near an approach to the infernal regions a ball game can be considered purely as a weather proposition, the following from Life is offered:

"What's doing in the way of amusements?" asks a new comer of the old inhabitant of Hades.

"Baseball game every afternoon," answered the old inhabitant.

"Baseball? You don't mean it; that's great. I was a fan from 'way back, on earth. On the square, do you have baseball every day?"

"Sure thing."

"By ginger! This place suits me. Baseball! Say, this can't be hell then?"

"Yes it is. The home team always loses."

Red Sox Vs. Dawson Springs.

The Red Sox baseball team will play the Dawson Springs baseball team at Dawson Springs next Sunday and a tight game is expected. The Red Sox have regained their old-time form, and expect to show the tourists how to play ball. Switzer will officiate in the box for the red hosiery lads, while Davis will twirl for the water boys. The Red Sox will line up: Cathey, c; Switzer, p; Evans, 1b; Gourieux, 2b; Hanners, 3b; Pier son, ss; Burton, lf; C. Fuller, cf; Anderson, rf.

Crippleships Tomorrow.

The Crippleships, a unique team composed of "has beens," will play the Wallerstein team tomorrow afternoon on the shop diamond. For membership to the team a player must be disabled in his arm, and not able to throw a ball from third base to first base. Dunbar will pitch for the cripples, who, in spite of their injuries, expect to down the Wallersteins. Hofflich or Elliott will pitch for the Wallersteins.

Making Target Rafts of Steel.

Two compressed air target rafts of steel are being built at the Charles rafts have been of wood surmounted with canvas wings.

The rafts, shaped much like a small vessel, will be towed around like a barge. They are each about 150 feet in length, 25 feet in depth at the deepest section and have a beam of about 26 feet. The deck section is a sort of an overhang platform, and the hull part shapes down in triangular style to the keel. Each will have many water-tight compartments, and the compartments will be filled with compressed air which make rafts float even if holes have been shot in half a dozen of the compartments.

The rafts will be sent in sections to the Norfolk navy yard for use at the record battle practice of the fleet.—Boston Herald.

NEVER LEAVE ROOM

IF LINCOLN WON

HAYDEN KEPT VOW HALF CENTURE INSIDE FOUR WALLS.

Nelson County's Most Eccentric Character Passes Away at Greenbrier.

HE HAD AMASSED A FORTUNE.

Basil Hayden, who swore nearly fifty years ago that if Abraham Lincoln was elected president of the United States, he would never step outside his room, kept his vow until death overtook him last Tuesday at his home at Greenbrier, Nelson county, Ky.

Hayden, who was in the prime of his manhood when Lincoln was nominated on what was known as the "Abolition" ticket, told his friends that he was going to do all in his power to defeat Lincoln, but that if he should be elected he would never set his foot outside of his room again. Little or no attention was paid to this declaration at the time and nearly everybody had forgotten it until the news came that Lincoln had been elected.

Upon the confirmation of the news Basil Hayden went to his room and sat down before his fire of blazing logs. His friends said that it was a whim which would pass with Hayden, and predicted that before Christmas he would get over his "huff." But Christmas came and went, then spring woke the earth to life and song again, but Basil Hayden kept within the four walls which he had elected should be his prison for the rest of his life.

Persons said that the stress of the campaign had overtaxed his mind, and that after a few months of rest he would become normal again. He disapproved these theories, however, by carrying on his business through an open window of his room. It soon became clear that his mind was not affected, and finally his friends and relatives gave up trying to persuade him to renounce his foolish vow. To all he replied that he had "made his bed and was going to lie in it."

Swapped Horses at Window.

After a year or two, people living in the neighborhood ceased to marvel at Hayden's strange actions, and among the neighbors it became accepted as a matter of course that he would never leave his room again. He did not exclude himself, however, to the neglect of business. He was known as a shrewd horse trader, and had amassed some money before he went into his hermitage. During the early years of his reclusive life he would sit at his window and "swap" horses with some of the keenest traders in the country. It is said of him that he was never beaten at a trade.

During his long hermitage Basil Hayden never permitted anyone in his room except his overseer, a man named Borders. The story to the effect that he had had an affair of the heart is without foundation, for it is well known by all of his friends that he never had a sweetheart.

Of late years Hayden had been feeble and had not devoted much attention to business. In the winter he would sit before his log fire, reading and in the summer he would draw his arm chair to the open window and fan himself with a turkey wing. He never shaved or had his hair cut after he retired to his voluntary prison.

Leaves a Fortune.

A brother, Ramond Hayden, committed suicide at the home a number of years ago. Basil did not look at the body and did not attend the funeral. The brother suffered from a hallucination that he was bankrupt and on the verge of starvation. When an inventory of his personal property was taken it was found that he was worth nearly $100,000. Basil Hayden leaves an estate valued at nearly $75,000.

The President's Residence

A correspondent raises the question of omitting the "the" before white house in speaking of the residence of the president, and urges that it should be omitted. Many will disagree with him on the grounds of both euphony and analogy. It certainly seems easier and smoother to speak of the white house than simply of white house. As for analogy, we may recall the examples of the Tuilleries, the House in the Woods the Quirinal, the Escurial and others all using the definite article. There would also be danger of some confusion of the president's mansion with other places, since there are various towns in the United States bearing the name White House. For these reasons it is doubtful if our correspondent's suggestion will or ought to be adopted.—New York Tribune.

There's a brand new SANITARY ICELESS FOUNTAIN at Gilbert's Drug Store at Fourth and Broad Streets, precisely like the one at Fourth street and Broadway.

The same delicious Ice Creams and Sherbets are served there as at the Fourth street and Broadway store—made in the same place, from the same full rich cream and by identical sanitary methods. Next time you are driving—probably tonight—we want you to stop and give yourself a treat—one that you'll enjoy hugely.

You can't miss the place—its right at the corner of Fourth street and Broad street, just before you round the turn into Third street

AMERICAN AVIATOR AVERTS CATASTROPHE IN THE AIR

Rheims, Aug. 20.—The American aviator, Glenn H. Curtiss, at sundown yesterday added a dramatic feature to the trial flights of the aeroplanes entered for the contests of aviation work by skillfully guiding his machine above another aeroplane and averting a collision in the air that seemed imminent.

The feat was accomplished when, for the first time in history, three heavier than air craft were maneuvering at the same time. All were flying rapidly when suddenly Curtiss saw Dunsmuir in an Antennette monoplane approaching at right angles and on the same level with him. Quick as a flash Curtiss elevated his planes and the machine instantly shot upward and soared safely over the Frenchman.

Thousands of spectators who lined the aerodrome watched the maneuver with bated breath, but when they saw it successfully and brilliantly carried out they applauded the American wildly.

THE GOOD ROADS SESSION CEASES

WITH ADDRESS BY PROMINENT MEMBERS OF ASSOCIATION.

Orders Work of Interesting the Voters In Constitutional Amendment Carried On.

WHAT AMENDMENT MEANS

The session of the Kentucky Good Roads association closed yesterday afternoon following addresses on the benefits of good roads. In the afternoon a larger attendance greeted the speakers, although the council chamber was far from being filled. Practically every speaker took the same theme, but discussed different phases of the plan for good roads throughout Kentucky. M. C. Rankin, commissioner of agriculture, County Judge R. T. Lightfoot, Norman Rushton, of Louisville, and Will H. Farley made addresses. President Bosworth also made a talk from the chair in which he pointed out under the constitution the poorer counties of the state were unable to build a mile of gravel roads, and by his comparisons he proved that he is an enthusiastic worker for better roads.

After the meeting the visitors were treated to an auto ride over the city streets and county roads.

In the interest of carrying the amendment to the constitution the association ordered circular letters spread broadcast over the state. A copy of the letter is:

"The Bosworth-Wyatt Good Road amendment to the constitution of Kentucky, which passed the last Kentucky legislature by its almost unanimous vote, and which is to be voted on at the next November general election of 1909, by the voters of Kentucky, is as follows, to-wit:

"The credit of the Commonwealth may be given, pledged or loaned to any county of the Commonwealth for public road purposes, and any county may be permitted to incur an indebtedness in any amount fixed by the county, not in excess of five per centum of the value of the taxable property therein, for public road purposes in said county, provided said additional indebtedness is submitted to the voters of the county for their ratification or rejection at a special election held for said purpose, in such manner as may be provided by law, and when any such indebtedness is incurred by any county, said county may levy, in addition to the tax rate allowed under Section 157 of the constitution of Kentucky, an amount not exceeding twenty cents on the hundred dollars of the assessed valuation of said county for the purpose of paying the interest on said indebtedness and providing a sinking fund for the payment of said indebtedness."

"Section 177 of the constitution of Kentucky forever prohibits the state from lending its aid, or in any way helping the counties in road building, or taking any part whatsoever in behalf of the cause of good roads."

"Section 1558 of our state constitution limits the power of any county to become indebted more than two per cent of the assessed valuation, thus making it impossible for the greater number of our counties to raise sufficient funds to do any road building at all."

"Section 157 of our state constitution provides that a county cannot levy exceeding fifty cents on each one hundred dollars of taxable property therein for any purpose whatever, thus making it impossible for many of the counties to provide sufficient means to create a sinking fund and pay interest on the debt created to build roads."

"As a consequence of these limitations and restrictions of the powers of the counties, and also of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, good road building in Kentucky has been a thing of the past since the adoption of our present constitution."

"This constitutional amendment will remove these restrictions, which are a barrier to the passage of such a system of road laws by our legislature, as will enable our counties and our state, and perhaps our federal government, to join hands in this important work of building and maintaining a system of improved highways in all parts of Kentucky, the accomplishment of which would do so much for the advancement, progress and development of Kentucky, and would mean more than all else for the comfort, convenience and improved condition of all our people. If this constitutional amendment receives a majority of the votes at that election, it will then be possible for Kentucky to pass such a system of good road laws as are in effect in the states of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Michigan, Massachusetts, California and Pennsylvania, and, in fact, every other state where progress and advancement is being made in building and maintaining good roads, while our own Kentucky is at a standstill."

"If you are in favor of good roads, vote for the Bosworth-Wyatt good road constitutional amendment and lend a helping hand in making it possible for every county in our state to have the very best improved highways."

"Yours very truly,

"JOE F. BOSWORTH, Pres. Ky. Good Roads Ass'n."

ROOSEVELT JUNGLE TROPHIES ARRIVE

SETS SHIP'S CREW "DIPPY" WITH COLLECTION

Twenty Casks and Nine Large Cases Filled With Specimens Sent to Smithsonian.

TWENTY-ONE BEASTS IN ALL

New York, Aug. 20.—When word was flashed to the Smithsonian institution today that the tramp steamer Provincia had reached port, all the government taxidermists figuratively rolled up their sleeves and steadied themselves to meet the first rush of Theodore Roosevelt's jungle trophies which represented enough wild things to deplete a city if they ever went on a rampage together.

In twenty casks and nine large cases, snugly packed in the Provincia's hold, the old tramp steamer had so much concentrated wild animal power aboard that some of the members of the crew shuddered even at the thought of what would happen if the bones and skins of the following animals suddenly took a notion to come to life:

Roebeek, Eland, Warhog, Steinhorn, Chettah, Leopard, Duikar, Hyena, Waterbuck, Gazelle, Zebra, Rhinoceros, Lion, Wildebeeste, Hippopotamus, Digidig, Hartbeeste, Buffalo, Giraffe, Impalia, Tiger.

Ship's Crew All But Mad.

"It was a fine old menagerie we brought over," said one of the crew "I never heard of a lot of the blamed things before. For instance, there's them digdigs. If their name means anything they must be good at excavating, but then one can't tell by that. Those duikards, elands and hartbeestes have got me plumb crazy."

"We've had a regular natural history class coming over. Most all the men can rattle the names right off the reel. Charlie, the cook, who has traveled some, says he doesn't remember whether a digdig is a bird or a four-legged animal with a head like a spade and a tail like a pick."

"We think Charlie is kiddin' us but don't care one way or the other. I'm glad I ran foul of that name digdig, because I lie the sound of it. 'It makes no difference to me whether it swims, flies or walks we've got the critter aboard here all right, and I guess that's going some.'"

Pine Trophies of Hunt.

Those who know about jungle animals say the trophies of Roosevelt's African hunt form a splendid collection and will make an unusual exhibit when they are assembled at the Smithsonian Institution in Washington.

The specimens were placed aboard the steamship Adowa at Mombasa British East Africa, on July 28, and later transferred to the Provincia.

The tasks and large cases are consigned to Elwell & Co., 24 Whitehall street, and will be sent to the Smithsonian Institution this week, where elaborate preparations have been made for their reception and for quick work in assembling the various parts.

COUNTERFEITERS

LOUISVILLE MEN PLANNED TO DISPOSE OF $1,000,000 MEXICAN

Made Broker An Offer of High Commission to Dispose of Poses—He Informed Police.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 20.—Dreams centered in a brass trunk containing a million dollars in counterfeit Mexican Pesos were shattered for John C. and Marion Roberts, brothers, here today, when Deputy United States Marshal Blaydes arrested John Roberts in Shelby county with the money in his possession.

John Roberts said he would plead guilty at the October term of the federal court. Marion Roberts some days ago offered a Louisville broker a high commission to dispose of some Mexican money for him. The broker notified Chief of Police Haager and notified the secret service men, today's arrest being the result. The chief counterfeiter admitted that he was behind a plan to dispose of imitation 100 peso notes through the broker.

Roberts said that had the perforating machine and device to number the bills reached him when he had expected them, he would have been in Mexico a week ago. His intention was to dispose of $1,000,000 in counterfeit money.

Roberts is a son of a former judge of this city. Will Koenig, a printer, has also been arrested in connection with this. Roberts is in jail under $15,000 federal bond.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 20.—The superintendent of public instruction's department today finished the calculation of the school per capita for 113 counties in the state. RACE MEETING FOR LEXINGTON

Week of Sport With the Mutual System of Betting to Take Place in October or November.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 20.—Although earlier today it was declared by a number of well-informed racing men that there was a chance of there being no fall meeting, it was stated later today that there would be a six-day meeting either the last week in October or the first week in November. President J. N. Camden, of the local association, will be here early in September, and it is expected that he will then ask for dates from the racing commission.

It is certain that the mutual system of betting will be used. The local association, some time ago, had an offer from a Cincinnati syndicate to lease the track for a week's meeting, but turned down the proposition, as it was learned that the Cincinnati men proposed to use books in betting.

Daily Thought.

Many a man's failure is due to his having aimed too high with a short-range gun.

WHAT THE WEST WANTS.

Henry Clay was an adept in picturing the future of the golden west in glowing words. To him the "west" meant Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and Kentucky, says the Chicago Tribune. He urged the protection of its industries, the building of roads for its development, and the encouragement of its people in every way. Visitors from the east, attracted to the central states by the roseate descriptions of such leaders, went back home to sing the praises of the new land beyond the mountains.

The same sort of process is witnessed now. Visitors to the "west" are returning from Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Utah, and other commonwealths, telling of the glories they have seen. Many of them declare their intention to join the great army of homeseekers who are pressing into these new lands of promise. Their enthusiasm merely reflects the feeling of those already settled beyond a more distant range of mountains than that which formed a barrier for the toiler of a century ago.

The expressions which come from the irrigation congress at Spokane indicate the belief of the "west" in itself. It knows what it wants. It does not hesitate to declare its needs. It does not use a foot rule or a pint cup in its measurements. Nothing but a large scale will satisfy it, as it looks out upon the possibilities. And it must be confessed that there is something contagious in the confidence which every western man feels in the certain future. As a stimulus to patriotic pride it cannot be surpassed.

The "west" wants money. It wants lots of it. Specifically, it wants $5,000,000,000. It will share part of it with the rest of the country. But its own projects will require much of the vast amount. The money is to be divided into five equal parts and is to be used for reclamation of arid lands by irrigation, for deep waterways, for good roads, for conservation of forest resources, and for drainage of swamp lands. Five billion dollars is a great amount. The vision of the Atlantic coast city would never reach so far. It is the expectant "west" which sees far ahead, outlines the needs, and looks forward with a hopeful spirit in the direction of great accomplishments.

SOME STORIES AROUND TOWN

The first "troubles" a young married man of this city who recently returned from a bridal tour, began last night when he was escorted from his wife and home by a delegation of fraternal brothers and given an unprecedented welcome. The young man was at home enjoying a cozy corner when a number of lodgemen called at the home and the leader rang for admittance. Mr. Newlywed denied them his presence at the club and refusing to come down. The infuriated fellowship below produced a rope and entering the house he was bound hand and foot and carried away, no heed being paid to the pleadings of the bride to desist. The groom was kept out until a late hour and then permitted to return to his lady love.

The following interesting letter from the Philippines tells of an encounter in which a former Paducah boy, who is now in the army, participated:

Jolo Jolo, P. I., July 6, 1909.

"As I am just in from a five days' fight with outlaw Moros I will write a few lines about some real service. On July first we were called out about 14 miles from here to shell out a band of seven outlaws, under the command of the famous chief, 'Jakerit'. The place we had to go to was a small island, which is nothing more than an old crater and cave. The cavalry could not get them out, and they could not go in after them. And, talk about work! We sure had some of it to get our guns in a position to fire. On all sides there was nothing but bluffs and plateaus to contend with. And before we got into action we had three men wounded, one seriously, but finally we got about ten or twelve shots into the cave, and then made a charge on the place. And as we did the natives ran at us, and we had a hand to hand fight with them. Perhaps you know about these Moros. They believe they go to heaven when they kill a Christian and they come at us to die. They have been known to charge a whole company or regiment singly, for just so long as the gets one white man he is satisfied. So they plunged into us and the result was we had two men killed and twenty-one wounded, four seriously. It was one of the lucky ones, not getting a scratch. They butchered the chief up something awful, and after it was all over they found out that they had made a great mistake in charging the cave, for after all the outlaws were killed, they entered the cave and found that all there was for them to eat was about one peck of rice, and absolutely no water. Then they were sorry that they did not surround the place and starve them out. But it was too late then. We had already paid very dearly with the lives of two good Americans, that were more than worth all the negroes in these islands. And, perhaps, we will have to pay dearer for the four that are seriously wounded have a very poor chance in this climate, with a cut of a rusty bolo and brass bullets in their bodies. But, nevertheless, it is the fault of woman's influence in the army, this thing would have never happened if some officers that have seen service here had been let alone. The cry is don't butcher the poor, innocent natives. That's the cry from the people who don't know the situation over in the jungles. And at the same time these poor, innocent natives are killing with modern rifles and slashing with rusty bolos the lives and heads of thousands of American soldiers. They are all friendly until they get within reach of you with a bolo, then off goes your head. Still our good old U. S. A. allows them to run around our soldiers armed with bolts, and we are not allowed to shoot. Regards to old Paducah and Kentucky, where you can shoot a man when he is looking for your head."

Geo. Brownnell Barricman,
First Serg. Battery E. 2, F. A.

Truant Officer William T. Byrd expects to enlarge the usefulness of his office by extending his power to "boys" anywhere from 40 years on up. Of course his duties are to see that all children of proper age are in school, but after he has the machinery of his office running smoothly he will clear off Broadway of the politicians and others of the leisure class who are opposed to manual labor. He has given them fair warning, and declares he intends to see that they are placed in school or some place where they cannot gab so much. So far his intended victims have given him the laugh, but Byrd says it will not be so funny for them when they dig down and get their slates and hunt the little red school house.

Couldn't Tell Her.

A Paducah family had an old colored mammy, Aunt Cindy, who was a splendid cook. One of the young ladies of the house asked her for the recipe for a certain exceptionally good cake she had made. "Missy, I can't give yo' dat recipee," replied Aunt Cindy.

"Why not?" asked the young miss.

"Well, missy," replied Auntie, "It is dis away. Cookin' is my business and it don't pay to tell yo' business. If you has business and don't mind yo' business, and tells yo' business dat ain't business, for it don't get yo' no business, but if yo' has business and yo' minds yo' own business and don't tell yo' business dat's business and gets yo' business."

Switch Off—Young Goolightly (to pretty girl)—Is the seat next to you engaged, miss?

Miss—No; but I am! And he is going to get in at the next station.—Comic Cuts.

is the face on the coin. A man or woman is natural when speaking to a child. When adults converse they are usually on guard, but in talking to children faces relax and are at their best. I am glad the head appears on the cent, the piece of money most familiar to the masses. It was Lincoln who said that God must love the common people because He had made so many of them. I had rather have the head on the cent than on the $20 gold piece."

Mr. Brenner came to this country as a poor boy twenty years ago. His father in Russia had taught him engraving, but until he learned enough English to make himself understood he did not know where to look for employment in that trade, and turned match peddler in the streets of this city. His first work in an engraver's shop brought him $4.50 a week. He attended Cooper Institute at night to study clay modeling. When he was able to earn $18 a week he saved most of it until able to go to Paris for a course in sculpture. He opened a studio in New York on his return, and has since kept himself busy.

The Indian head, in use for more than a generation on the cent and now to be discontinued, is to share the fate of its predecessor, the eagle, for the reason that it is easily counterfeited. Early in the present year the government decided on a change, but even then it was proposed to place the head of Lincoln on a silver coin, probably the half-dollar. Mr. Brenner submitted his designs at Washington. The head was then assigned to the cent.

LABOR DAY

ARRANGEMENTS ARE BEING COMPLETED FOR BIG CELEBRATION.

St. Louis Unions Propose to Run An Excursion For Local Holiday Festivities.

Many hundred people are expected to assist the laboring people of Paducah for an appropriate celebration of Labor Day. M. H. Danaher, secretary of the Central Labor Union, has received a letter from the labor unions of St. Louis requesting information about Paducah's celebration. The unions in St. Louis intend to run a special excursion to Paducah, and doubtless several hundred people will come to Paducah. An excursion will be run from Central City and union men east of Paducah will have an opportunity to attend. Besides the special excursions many people from the surrounding towns will attend, and all are promised a jolly day at Wallace park, where the celebration will be held.

CATS FOLLOW CATNIP PEDDLER

So Many Felines on His Trail That Police Are Forced to Arrest Him.

New York, Aug. 20.—Herman Gottlieb thought there were sufficient well-to-do families in New York who have pet cats to warrant him in becoming a peddler of catnip. He first tried to sell some of the herb at One Hundredth street and Fifth avenue, and in doing so dropped one on the sidewalk. This attracted a big black cat, and as Gottlieb proceeded, the odor from his basket attracted others. By the time he reached One Hundred and Sixteenth street there were between fifty and one hundred cats following him, and when he halted they surrounded him, and the longer he remained there the larger the aggregation of excited felines became, all of them struggling to get at the basket.

The cats attracted as many children, and as the easiest solution of the puzzling matter, the police arrested Gottlieb and took him to the station in a patrol wagon. Although the horses were whipped to top speed, more than a score of cats kept up with it until the station was reached, and there they were crouched by the several pet cats which the police harbor.

Suffragist Harangues Folkething Before Expelled.

Copenhagen, Aug. 20.—The members of the folkething, who met for the first time today since the forming of the new ministry, were treated to a lively overture by Mile. Neesteholm, a suffragette, whose activity in the cause has brought her to prominence on several occasions. Forcing her way past the lookers, the woman planted herself in front of the president's chair and gave the deputies a verbal rousing.

"Here you sit," she cried out, "you Danish men, haggling selfishly in a suit of power over the weak and woe of the country. But the women of Denmark, I tell you, disown you and brand you as a lot of hirelings, belonging to no country, who betray the honor of Denmark."

The bell of the president, and a fire of interruptions from the deputies had no effect on Mile. Neesteholm, who concluded her speech before attendants seized her and removed her from the chamber.

NEW PENNIES CAUSE TROUBLE FOR SLOT MACHINES.

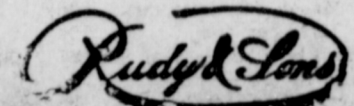

Of the Thickness of Five Cent Piece, Can Be Substituted For One.

Owners of nickel slot machines and telephone companies as well as warned against the use of the new Lincoln pennies, which have been discovered to be five times as valuable as the old Indian one cent piece. Being a trifle large and heavier than the old one cent piece, the new coin, it has been discovered, will answer the place of a five-cent piece in making telephone calls and also in nickel slot machines.

In several cities this practice has been found and if the advantage of the new penny has not been discovered in Paducah the telephone companies and slot machine owners will have ample time to avoid this.

SCIENCE TEACHER

WILL BE CHOSEN BY PROFESSOR
CARNAGY TOMORROW.

Teachers' Examinations Will Be Held
at the High School Thursday Morning.

A teacher for the science department of the High school will be decided on by Superintendent J. A. Car-nagie by tomorrow. Today he has limited his choice to two men, and he will recommend one of the two men to the school board. The recommendation is equitable to election
as the school board usually confirms the superintendent's selection. Both of the men are young and are believed to be competent, to take charge of the science work and direct the athletics. While their names are withheld from the public, one is a graduate from the Pennsylvania State university and the other finished
the Ohio Wesleyan university.

The teachers' examination will be held at the High school next Thursday morning by Prof. J. S. Ragdale and Mrs. John J. Dorlan, who compose the examination board. The examination will begin at 9 o'clock
and all teachers who are scheduled to take the examination should be on hand promptly.

The contract for supplying the schools with window curtains was awarded to J. A. Rudy & Sons this morning for $73.85. The curtains are needed to replenish old curtains
in some of the buildings. There were six bidders, and the bids ranged from $73.85 to $82.

NOURISHING AS MEAT

The time-worn argument that a meat diet is essential to strength and vigor has received a hard knock in the form of America's great wheat food, Faust Brand Spaghetti.

For here is a food as nourishing as meat—cheaper than meat—cleaner
than meat—that produces energy without great body heat—
a food that can be served every day and in so many ways
that its usefulness and welcome is without end. The food for vegetarians
—a food that has replaced meat in many homes.

Makes meal preparation a pleasure.

to get that this one will like and at the same time please the others.
Food you're sure of. Wholesome,

ED QUIGLEY GOES
FREE TODAY

JUDGE CROSS FOUND NO PROOF
JUSTIFYING MURDER CHARGE.

Quigley Shot Henry Boyd on An Excursion to Cairo Last September.

OTHER POLICE COURT ITEMS.

After the examination of nine witnesses for the commonwealth in the trial of Ed Quigley, colored,
charged with the murder of Henry Boyd, colored, last September, the defendant was dismissed by Police Judge D. A. Cross this morning in police court, no evidence being introduced that Quigley fired the fatal shot.

In giving his decision Judge Cross said his action did not prevent the commonwealth from carrying the case to the circuit court grand jury
but from the evidence in his court
not proof that would justify the holding of Quigley. Quigley immediately left the courtroom, followed by a score of grinning friends, while Ben Boyd, brother of the victim,
gave Quigley a long icy stare.

The shooting happened aboard the steamer J. B. Richardson last September during an excursion from Paducah to Cairo. Witnesses testified that a crap game was in progress
on the boat and both Quigley and Boyd participated. The proof showed that when Boyd came up to the crowd around a table on the lower deck Quigley threw down a quarter of a dollar and said he would bet
it against a dime that the negro who held the dice wouldn't "five." Boyd threw down a dime and the craps-teller said "five," or made his point. Boyd
then claimed the quarter while Quigley snatched it up. This provoked a quarrel, but Boyd was taken away
and finally consented not to renew the trouble. Later he was seen to emerge from the beer stand and pull something from his pocket and conceal it in his bosom and place something else in his coat pocket. Quigley, it was said, was behind a pile of life preservers when Boyd was alleged to have started after him.

Then the shot was fired, striking
Boyd in the right of the abdomen.
He fell back into the arms of John
Hillman and when the boat reached Cairo he was placed aboard a train and started for Paducah. He died between Heath and Maxon Mill.

Quigley remained aboard the boat
until it landed at Mounds and he walked off and disappeared, being at large until his recent capture in East St. Louis. The witnesses who testified this morning were Ben Boyd, Waddie Wheeler, Will Harris, Will Banks, Ed Singleton, alias "Big Six," Charlie Jones, John Hillman, Jim Bolan and Beverly Pryor, all colored. Some did not hear the shots and none saw the shooting. Quigley was seen with a gun when he left the boat, while witnesses testified that Boyd had a gun and another weapon. No proof was introduced to show who shot Boyd.

Attorney John K. Hendrick represented Quigley, who did not testify.
Quigley is said to be a negro of good reputation and a son of Tom Quigley,
an old slave who was owned by Colonel Quigley, of Paducah, many years ago. Quigley lived with his father near Columbus, Hickman company. It was on the request of Col.
Quigley this morning that Mr. Hendrick defended the negro.

In Police Court.
Judge Cross had a big docket before him this morning, disposing of nearly all of the cases, a few being continued until this afternoon. The docket was: Drunks: Jim Meiser and J. R. McFarland, fined $1 and costs each. Breach of peace—Geo.
Wilkinson, fined $5 upon confession;
Ida Whitesides and Ernest Jefferson,
dismissed; John Pitman, fined $10
on motion of the prosecuting attorney; Frank Watson, fined $40; Jim Nichols and Pete Kopetz, continued until this afternoon. Petit larceny—Bob Ruff, continued until this afternoon. Grand larceny—Sam Keiser, held to circuit court grand jury under $300 bond. Murder—Ed Quigley, dismissed.

Important Capture.
In the arrest of Sam Kiser, colored
T. J. Cronin, special agent for the Illinois Central railroad, may have made a good capture. Kiser was arrested in Greenville, Tenn., on the charge of robbing a hall rack in the Illinois Central railroad hospital.
Cronin has received word that a drug store at Sharon was burglarized last week, and Kiser is suspected of being guilty of the job, or at least having a knowledge of the affair. Kiser was put through the third degree today
but he is an experienced criminal and would tell nothing.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

SCHOOLS BRIGHTEN RURAL LIFE

If They Were Improved, Educators Believe They Would Do This.

Fassett A. Cotton, late state superintendent of instruction, Indiana, says: "The mothers and daughters who have borne their share of the burden of toil on the farm have been the larger sufferers. Life for them is too hard and the social advantages are too far between. Under such circumstances it is not strange that farmers' children are attracted to city life and that they leave the farm. "Now with the school as the center of township (or rural) life, economic, social, and educational interests can work out the solution better than the village center. It is doubtful if the latter is possible in the nature of the case, most farmers must live on their farms. The township school (a school centralized, to be patronized by all the residents of a township) should be conducted under the ideal conditions.

Three things are fundamental in this problem of raising the social standard of rural life. First, the cooperation of economic, social, and educational forces with the school as a center is absolutely essential. Second, the community life with its dominant interest, agriculture, must determine the nature of the work of the school and the mode of procedure. Third, the teachers must be capable of dealing with the problems of life and willing to make the community their permanent home, and to take the solution of its economic, social, and educational problems as their life work."

Revolts at Cold Steel.

"Your only hope," said three doctors to Mrs. M. E. Fisher, of Detroit, Mich., suffering from severe rectal troubles, "lies in an operation, then I used Dr. King's New Life Pills," she writes, "till wholly cured." They prevent Appendicitis, cure Constipation, Headache, 25c at all druggists.

MRS. SALZNER DIES OF WOUNDS

REMAINS OF MURDERED WOMAN BROUGHT HERE FOR BURIAL.

The Coroner's Jury Investigating the Case Brings Out Damaging Evidence Against Husband.

FUNERAL THIS AFTERNOON

Mrs. Mary Salzner, aged 26 years, a former resident of Paducah, who was the victim of a murderous attack in Cairo by her husband, Henry Salzner, died in Cairo and was brought to Paducah last night and turned over to Undertakers Mattill, Roth & Binger for burial. Because she refused to bear him any more children, it is said, Salzner made a brutal attack upon her, from which she died at the Cairo hospital. Salzner had prior to this been arrested for assault with intent to kill and released on a $500 bond. He was placed under arrest at the hospital on a charge of murder and is being held there.

Mrs. Salzner was the youngest daughter of Mr. H. H. Jones, a well known carpenter, of 1218 Clay street, and is also survived by her sister, Mrs. Daisy DeLoach, of Memphis. She was born near Birds Point, Mo., and came to this city from there. Later she met Salzner and married him a few years ago. She leaves two children. The funeral was held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the St. Francis de Sales Catholic church and burial at Oak Grove cemetery.

Cairo, Aug. 20.—Coroner Meigs yesterday empaneled a jury to inquire as to the cause of the death of Mrs. Mary Salzner, which occurred at 2:45 p. m. the day before at St. Mary's Infirmary. Six well known citizens of good standing were chosen as follows: W. B. Huette, foreman, John T. Brown, Dan Williamson, Henry Baird, Patrick Scullin, John Gates. Henry Salzner, husband of the dead woman, who is accused of killing her, was not present at first, but was called for by his attorney, Reed Green, and appeared in a very short time, accompanied by Jailer Abernethy.

The first witness was an old German named Herman Price, who is a lodger with Mrs. Braden in the same building where the dead woman lived. He said he saw Salzner come to the house between 9 and 10 o'clock Saturday night, August 7, coming from his mother's house. Salzner stopped at the door of his wife's apartments and went in; he had nothing in his hands; witness went to his own apartments about half an hour later and retired; heard talking in Mrs. Salzner's apartments by Salzner and his wife; could not understand what was said; had not gone to sleep when he heard a dull thump in Mrs. Salzner's apartments; there were only board partitions between where he slept and Mrs. Salzner's rooms; he felt sure there was something wrong, and when a little later he heard the baby crying on the jack porch he called to Mrs. Braden; he and Mrs. Braden went out and found the baby on the porch; Mrs. Braden picked up the little one, and took her to her own apartments; did not go into Mrs. Salzner's place at that time, although the back door was open; thought the Salzners had gone out and left the baby alone; went to Salzner's photograph gallery to see if he was there, but did not find any one there.

H. H. Jones, the father of the deceased, testified that he was notified of his daughter's condition by a telegram from a lady in Cairo (Mrs. Zanone), saying Mary was dying; later a message came from Henry Salzner; arrived here Wednesday; Mrs. Salzner knew us all and called us all by name; that evening we took her to the hospital; did not ask her any questions before because she was badly hurt and we did not want to worry her; at the hospital I spoke to her. One of the Sisters asked her if she knew who it was talking to her; she said "yes, it is my papa;" I asked her who he was and she said "Henry did it." I asked what did he hit you about? (Here the witness checked himself, saying "I don't know as I ought to say what she said; because there are ladies here; I don't think I ought to say it," and the coroner excused the witness from repeating it). The witness said that he noticed that her patent teeth were loose and he asked her about it. She said they were knocked out when the blow was struck.

He Knew the Good Places.

A gentleman in an address to a graduating class told the following story of the president of an ocean steamship company, who was taking a journey across the water. When the ship was in a dangerous channel he became engaged with the pilot, an elderly man, who had spent most of his life on the water. The president of the company remarked: "I suppose you know all about the dangerous places in this channel?" "None," replied the pilot. "You don't," exclaimed the president. "Then why are you in charge of that wheel?" "Because I know where the bad places ain't,"—Philadelphia Ledger.

Beware of the man who has a good story to tell you in a whisper.

HER PHYSICIAN ADVISED

Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Columbus, Ohio.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has changed my life. My doctor told me I was good, and since taking it I feel so much better that I can do all my work again. I think Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a fine remedy for all women's troubles, and I never forget to tell my friends what it has done for me."

—Mrs. E. HANSON, 304 East Long St., Columbus, Ohio.

Another Woman Helped. Graniteville, Vt.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and suffering from nervousness and other annoying symptoms. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored my health and strength, and proved worth mountains of gold to me. For the sake of other suffering women, I am willing you should publish my letter."

—Mrs. CHARLES BARCLAY, R.F.D., Graniteville, Vt.

Women who are passing through this critical period or who are suffering from any of those distressing peculiarities to their sex should not lose sight of the fact that for thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills. In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

A startling notice. In one of the smaller cities of New England there was an Episcopal church, which had two mission chapels, commonly known as the East End Mission and the North End Mission, from the parts of the city where they were respectively located. One day the rector gave out the notices, in his most distinguished high-church tone, as follows: "There will be service at the North End Mission at 3 o'clock, and at the East End at 5. Children will be baptized at both ends."

The Secret of Long Life. A French scientist has discovered one secret of long life. His method deals with the blood. But long ago millions of Americans had proved Electric Bitters prolongs life and makes it worth living. It purifies, enriches and vitalizes the blood, repairs wasted nerve cells, imparts life and tone to the entire system. It's a godsend to weak, sick and debilitated people. "Kidney trouble had blighted my life for months," writes W. M. Sherman, of Cushing, Me., "but Electric Bitters cured me entirely." Only 50c at all druggists.

About the only way a man can fool a woman is to make her believe she is fooling him when she isn't.

BABY'S ITCHING WAS INTOLERABLE

Girl of Six Months had Fearful Attack of Eczema—Spread All Over Her Face and Eyes Began to Swell—Scratched Till Blood Came—Relieved in a Night and CURED BY CUTICURA AFTER LONG SUFFERING

"When my little girl was six months old I noticed small red spots on her right cheek. I did not pay any attention to them at first, but the spots grew so large that I sent for the doctor who said it was ringworm. He prescribed an ointment which I used for two weeks, but instead of helping the eruption, the ointment seemed to make it worse. Then I went to a second doctor who said the baby had eczema. He also gave me an ointment which did not help either. The disease in the meantime spread all over the face and the eyes began to swell. I became very anxious. The itching grew intolerable. I had to tie the baby's hands to the cradle to prevent her scratching. The cheeks were covered with blood and it was a terrible sight to see. I consulted doctors from September to December, but they were unable to cure the baby. I paid out from twenty to thirty dollars without relief.

"One of my friends told me of the Cuticura Remedies and I sent at once for a set which I began to use that evening. The next morning the baby's face was all white instead of red and you can imagine how surprised I was. I cannot find words enough to praise Cuticura and I do not know what would have been the result if I had not used it. I used the Cuticura Remedies until the eczema entirely disappeared. The child is now three years old and quite well. I used three cakes of Cuticura Soap, two boxes of Cuticura Ointment and one bottle of Cuticura Resolvent and I never use any other soap. I always recommend them whenever there is a chance for doing so. I will send you one of her pictures which she had taken just after she was healed."

ALDERMEN DO WORK IN SHORT ORDER

LAST NIGHT SESSION LASTED ONLY FORTY-FIVE MINUTES.

The Board Reconsiders the Ordinance Requiring Property Owners to Cut Weeds and Grass Down.

SIDEWALK ORDINANCES WAIT

It just took the board of aldermen 40 minutes to transact their business last night at the city hall, the meeting being called to order at 8 o'clock by President Hannan and adjourning at 8:40 o'clock.

The sidewalk ordinances for improvements on Twelfth street, Clay street and Fountain avenue were not brought up for action as they have to lay over two weeks. Other business before the board was only of routine nature. The full board was present, as follows: Hannan, Durrett, Hank, Lackey, Oehlischlaeger, Potter, Sherrill and Stewart.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved with one correction.

Mr. Stewart moved a reconsideration to be given the action of the aldermen at the last meeting in defeating the ordinance requiring all owners of property, both improved and unimproved, to keep it free of weeds, shrubbery, rubbish, etc., so that it might again be taken up in the regular order of business, and the minutes were ordered so amended. Mr. Potter voting in the negative. The ordinance was then ordered back to the ordinance committee for revision.

City Engineer L. A. Washington was granted his request for a vacation from August 30 to September 13.

On motion of Mr. Lackey, a street light was ordered on Clay street between Fourteenth and Nineteenth streets.

Accounts amounting to $2,998.60 were allowed.

The ordinance recreating the office of city delinquent tax collector was given first and second adoption.

Chief James J. Wood, of the city fire department, was instructed to place a fire alarm box at the corner of Clements and Powell streets, Mechanicsburg.

On recommendation of the public improvement committee the board rejected the bids of the E. Howard Clark company, of Boston, to repair the two city clocks, the prices being too excessive.

The application of G. Lashlee & Co., at No. 403 North Twelfth street, for a saloon license was granted on motion of the license committee, which investigated complaints against it. Mr. Potter voted against the license.

The application of G. C. Pace & Bros. for a saloon license at 434 Norton street was granted and the bond accepted by a vote of 5 to 3. Petitions from W. J. Hills, superintendent of the N. C. & St. L. railroad and from employees of the office and shops protesting against the saloon, as there is already one on that corner, Fifth and Norton streets, were received and filed. Those opposing the license were Hank, Lackey and Stewart.

Property owners on Goebel avenue asked for relief from fifth on that street. Referred to the board of health.

The question of having Mr. J. W. Little drain the pond in Little's addition was referred to the hospital, sewer and sanitary committee, board of health and city engineer.

On motion of Mr. Stewart Mrs. Reed was granted privilege of connecting with the sewer through the property of Mr. Shelton, on Tennessee, between Fourth and Fifth streets, and paying him $30 for the privilege.

Property owners on North Fifth street asked for the extension of water mains to Wagner avenue. Referred to water company.

The cemetery committee was empowered to get plans and bids for a new house for the sexton at Oak Grove cemetery.

The city clerk read a communication to Mayor Smith from A. L. Lassiter, who sent in his resignation as a member of the board of park commissioners. The communication was received and filed.

Mr. Potter received the old question of running a street from the Mayfield road to the Union depot and moved that the property be condemned for street purposes. Mayor Smith, who has investigated the matter, said it would be a dangerous place for a street to cross and said the question was in the hands of the I. C. railroad officials. Mr. Potter withdrew the motion.

The board adjourned.

People of fresh air habits and discernment almost instantly and unconsciously are able to tell the presence of deleterious and injurious agents in the air, although these give no sign or warning to the senses. On this account an Indian has an unbearable sense of oppression in a closed room.

BABY'S SUMMER REMEDY FREE

In a family where the children are still young few mothers experience the joy of passing a summer without the children becoming sick. As a rule the ailment is a trivial one, though it looks very serious. The trouble usually lies in the stomach or bowels, due to a summer cold or to unfit food, water or fruit—the hot-weather dangers. Before becoming alarmed, however, give the child a dose of DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN when you put it to bed. The direction sheet that comes with each bottle will tell you the quantity to give, according to the age, and as the remedy is pleasant to take and does not gripe, the child will not refuse it. By morning it will be much improved, and in another day entirely well. That is the experience of thousands of mothers. Give it in constipation, biliousness, summer complaint, loss of appetite or sleep, sick headache, peevishness, etc. Do not give salts or purgative waters, tablets, pills or sleep-producing remedies that always contain narcotics, for these are unpleasant to take, gripe, and do only temporary good. DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN is a vegetable compound, thoroughly tested in American homes for many years. Women, children and old people are among its staunchest friends. Your druggist will sell you a bottle at the small price of 50 cents or $1.00.

Those who have never yet used DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN and would like to make a test of it before buying in the regular way of their druggist, can obtain a BOTTLE either for themselves or any member of their family by sending name and address to the doctor. The sample will be sent to your home free of charge. In this way you can find out what it will do without cost. Also, if the case presents difficulties that doctors and other remedies seem unable to overcome, write letter to Dr. Caldwell explaining how the person suffers and he will stomach, liver and bowel diseases, without charge. Women who have children should send for "SUMMER SUGGESTIONS TO MOTHERS," containing the doctor's advice on diet, hygiene, etc., in his weather—a very important subject. The address is: Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 507 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill.

INDIAN BLOOD IN KENTUCKIANS

Accounts For Some of Our "Best Families," Says California Educator.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 20.—After reading the statement of Prof. William Mathews, of Chicago, that a little American Indian blood mingled with that of our race would produce a strain which would be hard to equal, Prof. Rockwell D. Hunt, of the department of sociology in the university of southern California, and a student of Indian life, said yesterday that he agrees thoroughly with the Chicago professor.

"While there are wide variations in the different tribes," said Prof. Hunt, "by choosing the better Indians I believe that the intermarriage of Indians and members of our race would result in good. Some of the best families of Kentucky have a strain of Indian blood in their veins and in Oklahoma and South Dakota I know of marked examples of intermarriages."

The Wealth Producer.

The total estimated value of the cereal crops of this country for the year reaches $2,102,109,500. The total value of the gold and silver output of the United States is $132,630,000, and of the world is $614,051,200. The farmer is the real wealth producer and his products are the prosperity-makers.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

It is said that the Chicago Woman's club is forced to spend $1,500 for a new cloak room on account of the present extravagant size of hats

HOLMES CENTENIAL COMES THIS MONTH

HIS CAREER WAS A SINGULARLY SIMPLE ONE.

The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table Presented New Literary Farm.

REVIEW OF HIS WORK.

One hundred years ago this month, in the big bible house under the gambrel roofed house in Cambridge, Mass., from whose steps the president of Harvard college prayed for the soldiers halted there on their way to Bunker Hill, Abiel Holmes
wrote the words, "Born, a son."

Later he appended the name
"Oliver Wendell," and he sprinkled sands on a wooden tablet, after a custom of the day. Whether or not the ceremony was symbolical, the sands, and the tablet, and the house have all vanished. But on that longer, grayer, foot imprinted, tear washed strip of the sands of life, the personality of the child born on that 29th day of August still glows as a bright, precious crystal.

During the month celebrations
will be held in many cities. Individuals, although taking no part in the prearranged exercises, will do homage to him in their own hearts,
and the order of their tribute will be, secondly, to one of the foremost of American men of letters, and first, to a splendid and charming personality.

He left the record of this latter
in his writings, more perfectly caught and preserved there as a gift
to posterity than it has many times
been one's blessing to receive among the bequests of great people. He is there chiseled cameo clear, so that she who has read him as a little girl knows him scarcely less vividly
than the great critics who have claimed personal acquaintance with him.

Hurrying on this 100th anniversary to see what secrets of his character William Dean Howells had discovered during their friendship, you find you knew him scarcely less well than he. His advantage is only that he can tell of him so charmingly and make his points from anecdotes of his own experience with him. One of the first observations he makes is:

"He frankly and joyously made himself the starting point in all his inquest of the hearts and minds of other men, but so far from singling
himself out in this, and standing apart in it, there never was any one who was more eagerly and gladly

A CLEAN HEAD MEANS A COOL HEAD.

Good Thing to Know in Warm Weather.

Better to know what will make
the head clean and cool.
Only one answer.
Parisian Sage.
You've heard of it of course.
You knew it was the only real dandruff germ killer worth while.
You knew it was and is guaranteed to stop dandruff, falling hair
and itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

That this wonderful hair rejuvenator, Parisian Sage, turns harsh,
faded, lusterless hair into silky, beautiful, lustrous hair in a few days.
You know that it is extensively used by women of refinement.
But you didn't know that it would keep the scalp nice and cool during summer.

Well, now you know it, so get a large bottle and if you aren't satisfied get your money back—50 cents
at Gilbert's drug store, who guarantees it.
Leading druggists everywhere in America now sell Parisian Sage, and ica by Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N.

your fellow being in the things of the soul."

The first jealous impulse of the reader is to reply: "Well, don't I know it, for did he not betray the same trait with childlike naïveté, un-practiced in deception when, in the character of the Autocrat, to use Mr.
Howells' words in another connection, 'he studied the whole universe
from the standpoint of himself?'"

So, also, the discovery through acquaintance voiced in the opinion of Mr. Howells: "I think he preferred social equality in his fellow men." He tells it of himself, and when he doesn't tell it, the same truth shines in his attitude.

"Other things being equal," he says, with that aristocratic geniality
which is so charming a factor of himself, "I think I prefer the man with the ancestry and the family to the one who is wholly self-made."

It is the centennial of this man whom we know thus specifically in a hundred of his little manifestations of personality that the country is celebrating, first, maybe, for himself and the affection he inspired, then for his unique place in letters, but finally no less for one of the most wholly American writers America
ever had.

An American perhaps in its restrictive meaning of Boston and New England for as Mr. Howells says, "I have not mentioned Oliver Wendell Holmes, because I think his name
would come first from the reader's thought with the suggestion of the name of Boston."

As Leslie Stephen points out, his career was singularly simple. "On returning from Paris he set up as a physician without obtaining much practice. He married in 1840, in 1847 became professor in the medical school at Harvard, and held the office for thirty-five years. He retired in 1882 at the age of 73 and survived as a venerated and happy
old man until 1894."

"The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table," written first as a series of articles for the Atlantic Monthly, presented a new literary form, which later aspirants have found it difficult to imitate. Critics have called it the dramatic essay, and it consists,
as everybody knows, in a series of disquisitions by the mild, gentlemanly autocrat to an assemblage of boarders, all of whom themselves
have personally and life histories
which weave vividly into the woof
of the essay.

Three novels were also of the fruit of his mind, one of which is as inseparably associated with his name as the "Autocrat." "Elsie Venner," the lovely, unfortunate,
snake poisoned girl, whose romance
has been said by critics not to
"square nicely with the orthodox canons
of criticism." The untutored mind cannot help the question under these circumstances if it is not the fault
of the orthodox canons of criticism,
and not of this story which old men
quote with tears in their eyes and say, "poor Elsie," while the younger readers exclaim that it is the most thrilling novel they have ever read.

Then there is his poetry, not great in amount but embracing all of his facilities—his gentle pathos, his sentimental gift, most salient of all his mental gifts. In an external way
it manifests another of his characteristics, which is his kindness. He was forever "getting something," for some celebration, even when he was too feeble for the effort and all of his contemporaries, Longfellow, Lowell, Whittier, he sung one by one to the grave. None of them passed without his tribute, whatever his physical strength.

There is the "Wonderful One Horse Shay," best known perhaps of his humorous works, and there is
"Homesick in Heaven," too long to quote, but movingly pathetic. There is also the "Last Leaf," combining delicate pathos and mirth.

The main lesson of leprosy is somewhat philosophic. All Europe
for centuries was covered with it,
but the quick, strong, reactive blood
of the white race strangled the germs
of death, so it is doubtful if whites
could ever be pestered much again.
Yellow races, of slower, weaker blood, are still slowly stewing with it.

TENTH STREET TO BE PARKED

FROM JACKSON STREET SOUTH
FOR FOUR BLOCKS.

The Commissioners Pass Up That Portion From Kentucky Avenue
to Jackson Street.

OWNERS ASK TOO MUCH

The park commissioners have concluded to improve four blocks of South Tenth street, with a park in the center, like that on Tenth, between Broadway and Kentucky avenue, and at a meeting yesterday afternoon authorized the letting of a contract for it to be done this year.

The board will not improve that portion of Tenth street between Kentucky avenue and Jackson, which is now less than the width of the street in other portions, one hundred feet. Its original scheme comprehended the widening of the four blocks between these streets, but some of the property owners, from whom bits of ground would have to be procured, showed intentions of exacting exorbitant prices, so the commissioners will pass up their portion of the thoroughfare. The street is a full hundred feet wide south of Jackson street, and the blocks to be improved are the first four south, beginning with Jackson.

This will take all of the money the board has at its disposal this year,
and next year the balance of the street will be improved likewise. The board intends to make Tenth street
a handsome boulevard and the work already done has met with hearty approval. It will be improved all the way to Fisherville eventually,
except for these four blocks.

STOMACH TROUBLE CURED

Robt. A. Hays & Co.—I had a stomach trouble and constipation for four years and could not find anything that would relieve me. I could not eat anything except oatmeal and rice, but that would hurt me, so I tried Hays' Specific and had not used it more than two weeks till I could eat anything I wanted without pain.
I used one bottle and have never been bothered with my stomach since and it was two years ago. I believe it to be a good family medicine.

AN UP-TO-DATE DRUGGIST

says it is surprising how many old-fashioned remedies are being used,
which goes to show that it is hard to improve some of our grandmothers' old, time-tried remedies. For instance, for keeping the hair dark,
soft and glossy, nothing equalling
our grandmothers' "sage tea" has ever been discovered. Although, by the addition of sulphur and other ingredients, this old-fashioned brew
has been made more effective as a scalp tonic and color restorer. Nowadays when our hair comes out or gets faded or gray, instead of going to the garden or garret for herbs and making the "tea" ourselves, we simply go to the nearest drug store and ask for a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. This preparation is sold by all leading druggists for 50 cents and $1 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price. For sale and recommended by W. J. Gilbert.

TALK SUCCESS

AT NATIONAL NEGRO LEAGUE'S
SECOND DAY SESSION.

Booker Washington Unanimously
Re-Elected President of the Organization.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 20.—Announcement of the auditing committee was the first business before the second day's session of the National Negro Business league, in tenth annual convention at Chestnut street Colored Methodist church,
which was called together by President Booker T. Washington at 10 o'clock today.

The committee is composed of:
C. F. Johnston, Alabama, chairman.
S. H. Highland, Mississippi.
H. A. Tandy, Kentucky.
E. B. Jefferson, Louisiana.

The first speaker was the Rev. B.
F. Riley, of Birmingham, Ala., who was formerly superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league of Texas, and who said he had been making an investigation of the relation of the negro and the saloon in the south.
He said he is interested in bringing the leadership of the white and negro races together in a united stand against the saloon. His remarks were received with applause.

This being Mississippi day in the convention, Charles S. Banks, cashier of the First National Bank of Mound Bayou, Miss., president of the Mississippi Negro Business league, was called to the chair by President
Washington. He introduced C. W.
Gilliam, of Okolona, Miss., the first
speaker on the regular program,
whose subject was "The Successful Merchant." He detailed his experience from a humble beginning to a stock of from $8,000 to $70,000.
He owns his building, in which he employs six clerks. He owns his home and his eight tenant houses,
and is rated by the credit agencies at from $10,000 to $20,000. His annual volume of business is from $30,000 to $40,000. This covers a period of seventeen years in a town
of 4,000 people, about 40 per cent
of whom are negroes.

P. McIntosh, also of Okolona, the oldest colored merchant in Mississippi, was called on by President Banks, but before he could begin speaking seventy-five members of the National Negro Funeral Directors'
association came into the auditorium in a body and were given a special section of seats to themselves.
S. Cox, of Eutaw, Miss., was the next speaker. He was born a slave and served in the Union army during the Civil war. He began farming on rented ground and was obliged to exchange his labor day for day
against that of the animal in order
to procure a mule to do his plowing.
His principal achievement has been in making a success on a farm
of 720 acres with negro labor, while his next neighbor failed with Italian labor. He never had any education but what he has picked up, though he has been postmaster for eleven years.

In response to a question, he said
humorously he believed if he ever had gone to school he would not have had sense enough to acquire the property. Another question elicited the response that he owns another

farm at Mound Bayou, of 200 acres,
for which he recently refused $20,- 000. He does an annual cotton business of about $5,000 profit. He grows nothing but cotton for the market.

A close of a meeting at Macaulay's theater, under the auspices of the league last evening at which President Washington delivered his annual address, he was unanimously re-elected, under a suspension of the rules. It is probable that the remaining present officers
of the league will be re-elected today.

NO FORFEIT UP FOR FIGHT WITH JEFF

Jack Johnson's $5,000 Was to Assure
the Scrap With Stanley Ketchel.

New York, Aug. 20.—Jack Johnson's statement in the west that he already has $5,000 deposited in New York as a forfeit for a fight with Jeffries, is denied by the sporting editor whom he named as the depositor.
Johnson did deposit $5,000 here, but it does not figure in the Jeffries negotiations. After Jeffries had deposited $5,000 and had sailed for Eurou, Johnson appeared on the scene

and put up $5,000 with a different sporting writer, declaring that the first man who covered it would be entitled to a fight with him. Willis Britt was on the spot immediately and covered the $5,000 with a like amount for Stanley Ketchel, and Johnson immediately signed articles
to fight Ketchel in California in October, and the money, $10,000 in all
was transferred to a sporting writer
in San Francisco, who is now the stakeholder.

Therefore, it is declared here that Johnson has not deposited any money
as a forfeit to fight Jeffries.

A Considerate Scotchman.

Four old Scotchmen, the remnant of a club formed some fifty years ago
were seated around the table in the club room. It was 5 a. m. and Dou-
gal looked across at Donald and said
in a thick, sleepy voice:

"Donald, d'ye notice what an awful peculiar expression there is on Jock's face?"

"Aye," says Donald, "I notice that;
he's dead! He's been dead these four hours."

"What? Dead? Why did ye no tell me?"

"Ah, no—no—no," said Donald,
"Am no that kind o' man to disturb
a convivial evening."

WANTS WORLD'S MARRYING RECORD

HE HAS HITCHED TOGETHER
3,000 ELOPING COUPLES.

Stands God Chance to Run the Figures Up to 5,000.

MAKES IT A PROFESSION.

Bristol, Tenn., Aug. 20.—Rev. A. H. Burroughs, the matrimonial wizard of Bristol, who has married more than 3,000 eloping couples, is now more active than he was ten years ago, despite the fact that he is 71 years old. He meets every train coming in from Virginia and it is seldom that he is disappointed in securing a couple. He has established his claim to the world's record as a marrying parson, and hopes to marry 5,000 eloping couples before he dies. At the present rate he will accomplish this in about six years.

Rev. Mr. Burroughs is a regularly ordained Baptist minister. He retired from the ministry because he found that he could earn more money marrying eloping couples. He has established his Mecca just across the state line in Tennessee, and has made Bristol a veritable Gretna Green, couples coming from all over Virginia and West Virginia, where the rigid laws deny matrimony to those under 21 years old without formal parental consent.

"Tennessee believes in letting the young be happy," says Parson Burroughs, "and if matrimony is the road to happiness, they may travel it at the tender age of 16."

The marrying parson averages six or eight couples a week. Only a few days ago he married six couples, with a single ceremony, smashing all former records. His record before this was four. He has begun to marry the children of his first couples, and is very proud of this.

CHICAGO EMPLOYEES VOTE TO

The Differences Had Apparently

POLICE LOOK FOR TROUBLE

Chicago, Aug. 20.—It looks as if Chicago will have a street car strike despite all the efforts made to evade it. The rejection of the wage scale proposition which was submitted by the company has caused a sensation and made the situation more critical than ever. The action of the employees was so unexpected that it surprised even their officers and they now say they have washed their hands of the whole matter. International President W. D. Mahon has been wired to come to Chicago. The police are taking precautions to be ready for trouble at any time.

The Dick Fowler came in from Cairo last night at 10 o'clock and carried a private excursion party up and down the Ohio until 1 o'clock this morning. She had a good freight trip and many passengers when she left Cairo this morning. Steamboat inspectors Green and St. John arrived last night from Nashville and today inspected the Bob Dudley and the towboat Russell Lord, of the Ayer & Lord Tle company's fleet. They left this afternoon for Nashville.

Repairs to the gasoline launch Cutaway III, are nearing completion and this morning she was slid in to the water again. Capt. E. The City of Saltville was in port from the Tennessee river last night

The Bob Dudley, whose boiler flue was crossed out by steamboat inspectors a few weeks ago, has been placed in good shape again, her repair work being completed this morning and her smoke stacks put back in position. She will lay up here until very low water and then replace the Reuben Dunbar in the Paducah, Nashville and Clarksville trade. The Dunbar will, however, continue as long as there is enough water for her to navigate.

The beautiful packet boat Electra, owned by the Ryman line, and the largest of that line of boats, is due today from Nashville and will run an excursion out of this port Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock to the Tennessee river and also Monday night, for white people only. Capt. T. J. Martin is in charge of the Reuben Dunbar, while Capt. Crider is on the Electra.

The Dick Fowler is booked for an excursion to Cairo Sunday, leaving at 9 a. m. and returning at 10 o'clock that night. There will be music, dancing and refreshments.

The towboat Eliza passed here yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock from Pittsburgh on her way to Cairo with two steel barges for Baton Rouge, La.

The Chattanooga will be the Evansville packet tomorrow.

The Kentucky came back today from the lower Ohio, where she unloaded and is receiving freight at the wharfboat. She leaves tomorrow evening about 7 o'clock for Riverton, Ala. Capt. Frank L. Brown, wharfmaster, will still be in charge of the boat as Capt. King Hale is yet unable to be out. He is rapidly recovering.

WALTER WEILMAN FINALLY STARTS ON DASH FOR POLE
The Journalist-Explorer is Off, and the Unexpected Has Happened.

Paris, Aug. 20.—A special dispatch has been received from Trieste saying that according to a telegram received from the captain of the Italian steamer, Thalia, now at Hammerfest, Norway, Walter Weilmann left Spitzbergen August 16 in his dirigible balloon, bound for the North Pole. He had a favorable wind when the start was made.

For the past four years Walter Weilmann, of Chicago, has been devoting his time to preparations for an undertaking to reach the North Pole by airship. He was at Spitzbergen in 1906 with a balloon, but postponed his departure on account of the lateness of the season. In 1907 a start was made in the airship America, but the vessel encountered a storm and was driven back and the attempt for that year was abandoned. Mr. Weilmann left New York, May 12 of this year, for Spitzbergen where he has been engaged in completing his preparations for the start he is now said to have made three days ago. He estimates that under favorable conditions the pole can be reached from Spitzbergen in from two to five days.
